FORTY-FOURTH YEAR NO. 9

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1921

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

DEATH CALLS ROBERT BIRD

In Robt. Bird's death Cedarville lost a leading citizen and one of our prominent and influential merchants last Thursday night after an illness of four weeks from catarrhal fever which caused a toxic bone infection. An operation was performed at the McClellan hospital but he never regained his strength due to previous weakened condition.

The deceased was born April 2, 1855 in this place, being the son of Bloss and Ellen Bird, a family of prominent English ancestors. He received his education in the local public schools and at the age of 22 took over a grocery store belonging to his sister, Mrs. Julia Condon, that was then located in a small brick building that stands today on South Main street. From this small beginning his business grew and in 1882 he moved into the Gaunce building at Main and Xenia avenue where the new Exchange Bank building is now located.

Here he continued business with great success and in 1890 moved just across the public square where he branched out into a general department store. Owing to failing health the store was reorganized in 1915 under the name of Robert Bird & Sons Co. with his son Frank and son-in-law Lloyd Conner in charge.

Mr. Bird all the years of his business experience maintained a reputation for fair and honest dealing, to patron and competitor alike. He was a man of unassuming disposition, courteous, genial and one who numbered his friends by the hundred. His determination to succeed in business was only measured by his physical ability to withstand the strain of the days, months and years he devoted to the business.

On April 11th, 1888 he was united in marriage to Miss Aletia Stevenson of near Xenia and to them were born five children, all of whom survive. They are Frank and Mrs. Lloyd Conner, and Miss Mary Bird of this place, Fred, who is assistant to the superintendent of Mandel Bros. Department Store in Chicago and Harry who is studying pharmacy in Philadelphia. Mrs. H. A. Turnbull of this place and Mrs. Julia Condon of Fair Haven, Florida, are the only surviving members of the deceased's family.

The deceased was a member of the United Presbyterian church and for ten years was a member of the board of trustees.

The funeral services were held on Sabbath afternoon at the U. P. church in charge of his pastor, Rev. J. P. White, who was assisted by Dr. McChesney and Rev. Butler. A solo, "In the Upper Garden" was sung by Miss Helen Oglesbee and a selection by a quartette by Misses Helen and Dora Oglesbee and Hugh Turnbull and J. A. Stormont.

Interment took place at Massies creek cemetery. The pall bearers were J. E. Turnbull, J. E. Hastings, W. A. Spencer, W. L. Clemons, O. L. Smith, Bery Myers, Dr. M. I. Marsh and M. W. Collins.

A delegation of business men attended the funeral in a body. There were many floral tributes from different organizations and friends and the business men as tributes of the esteem and affection in which the deceased was held.

NO INCREASE IN PAY.

Greene county jurors in common with the other jurors who will have to wait another two weeks before they get a salary increase. By a vote of 19 to 18 the senate defeated the Bond house bill to raise pay from $2 to $3 a day. A motion to reconsider then was defeated 19 to 18.

WANTS NO EXEMPTION.

President-elect Harding does not want to take advantage of any legislation to escape the income tax like President Wilson. The income tax on a $75,000 salary such as the president gets is $18,000 and Mr. Harding objects to a proposed bill to exempt him from this tax.

NO LONGER SECRETARY.

R. E. Grieco has resigned as secretary of the Greene County Fair Board after a service in that capacity of thirty-five years. Mr. Grieco has been an able official in that position and his experience in handling the fair has proven valuable to the Board. From year to year. He has been succeeded by J. Robert Bryson, son of W. B. Bryson, who has been a member of the board for many years.

CLUB OPPOSES BILL.

The Greene County Automobile club opposes the bill in the legislature to license all automobile drivers. The county commissioners will be asked to provide for a standing reward for the arrest and conviction of auto thieves and recovery of property.

NOT MANY GOING.

Those who can dig up $78 can go from this section to Washington, D. C., for the inauguration on March 4. The fare in 1901 was only $14. The fare will keep many at home just at present when dollar bills are not blowing with every gust of wind about the streets.

W. H. Gordon has been appointed administrator of the estate of R. B. Gordon by the Clark county probate court and bond given the sum of $156,000. The estate is valued at $156,000. Mr. Gordon, who formerly lived at South Solon but in later years in Springfield, was one of the best known stock buyers in Ohio.

FARM AND FIELD NOTES

Twenty-three hens in the Nebraska college of agriculture laid 23 or more eggs during December; one laid 27 and four 26 each. Among the twenty-three big layers there were seven White Leghorns, four White Wyandottes, four White Orpingtons, one Rhode Island Red and three Buff Orpingtons.

The bureau of crop statistics of Ohio just issued for the past year shows a decline not only in the number of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep but in the value as well. There were 10,000 less horses; 74,000 less cattle; 21,000 less dairy cattle; 100,000 less sheep; 184,000 less hogs. The loss for the various kind of stock due to the decline of the market is placed at $17,464,000 for the year. The estimated value of all stock in Ohio is $237,087,000.

William Cheney has rented the A. H. White farm east of town to be vacated by W. E. Clemans, who goes to his farm south of Jamestown which he purchased last fall.

While a few farmers have started spring plowing no great amount of land has been turned. W. L. Clemans probably leads in this respect for he has 40 acres broken on his farm on the lower River road near Clifton.

George Martindale, of near Gladstone, who has purchased the Winter farm, expects to engage in the dairy business from reports. Mr. Martindale expects to improve the farm and location, moving the barn to another place.

Jack Furry who has been renting the Earl Snyder place will move to the Tomson's farm on the James town pike.

Harry Powers leaves the Henry Smith farm and moves to a house on John Turner's farm.

Michael O'Connell of Jamestown has moved back to his farm off the Federal pike.

The fire on the F. P. Hastings farm below Xenia recalls to mind the fire on the Frank Townsend farm a year ago this coming March. Mr. Townsend's lost dwelling as well as all buildings while the dwelling was not burned on the Hastings farm. The loss on the contents is placed at $17,464,000. The barn, which was an unusually good one was only insured for $2,500, which would not near replace it.

Many went from this section to attend the W. B. Robt. sale near South Charleston, Tuesday. The big draft teams were in demand and good prices. The T. B. Mechleng team, the W. R. Watt team that was purchased some time ago each cost $500.

The Smith and Powers sale last Friday was quite a success, most all the stock and machinery bringing good prices.

The Critz farm on the Solon pike is to be surveyed and a line straight through the middle will be made, the south half going to John Critz while the house and north half will go to his sister, Mrs. Theo. Vogles. The Critz farm has been badly neglected but the new owners inform us it will be sown in grass and improved. There is almost 200 acres of it—South Charleston, Sentinel.

T. B. Mechleng who sold what was known as the Teas place to Mr. Rohrer, will locate in Denver, Colo. Mr. Rohrer gets possession the first of the month.

Fred Aldgren of Naperville, Ill., has moved on the F. B. Turnbull farm. Aldgren has purchased a half interest in all the stock and farm equipment, also the herd of Angus cattle. He is an experienced cattle man and an expert of the farm of Mr. Turnbull. He brought nine head of the finest Duroc hogs from Judge Duncan's famous herd. He will raise these hogs, but of course his wife and four children are expected in a few days.

Township and Ritenour purchased one of the biggest lot of fat hogs from one farmer at one time that has ever gone from the local market. J. E. Gower, one of the big farmers on the Solon and Jamestown pike, sold 250 head of hogs that averaged 337 pounds. At one time we understand that Mr. Lewis was offered 14 cents for these hogs, but of course no such price was paid on the present market. At ten cents a pound the price of the hogs would be nearly $5,500.

No more free seeds will be sent out by the government as the Senate refused to provide $307,000 for this little piece of campaign material.

Judge Geiger of the Court of Common Pleas in Springfield has upheld the police court that tractors cannot run over the paved streets of that city without laying boards to protect the paving. Charles Wilson was fined $50 for operating a tractor and he appealed from police court to common pleas.

"COAL OIL JOHNNY"

Those same dimes and quarters, deposited regularly in a savings account, would light the way to financial independence. And it isn't hard to save. Once started, you soon acquire the habit—your bank account will mount up in surprising fashion.

These suits are new—cut in January—after the generous cut in clothing market—and while we are not positively certain we are lead to believe that this is the first showing of 1921 models, at 1921 prices—in or near to Xenia.

We didn't wait for traveling salesmen to bring these suits to us—we shouldered our market basket and went in search of them.

A Worthy Example of Independence

George Washington—the father of his country—was a man whose example of thrift and success should be an inspiration to every American. From all his earnings he set aside a certain part regularly—against the days of his "sunset."

A small amount deposited at this Association in our Term Savings Account with interest at 5-1-2 per cent compounded semi-annually will grow to large proportions. Try it.

What the ring of the Liberty Bell meant to the Colonies, the Liberty Bell Home Savings means to you—Independence.
